

Probate

In Her Majesty's Surrogate Court of the County of Wellington

Be it shewn that on the Seventh day of July 1867, the last Will and Testament of John Milne, late of the Village of Coleridge in the County of Wellington, Yeoman, deceased, who died on or about the Seventh day of July A.D. 1867, at the Village of Coleridge in the County of Wellington, his usual place of residence at the time of his death, — Was Moved and Registered in the Surrogate Court, a true Copy of which said last Will and Testament, in substance and that the Admorsation of all and singular the Personal Estate and Effects, Rights and Credits of the said deceased, and any way concerning the same, was given by the aforesaid Court to John Milne of the Village of Coleridge in the County of Wellington, and Robert Gore of the same Place, Yeoman, — The Executors named in the said Will they having been first sworn and faithfully administered to serve by paying the just debts of the deceased and the legacies contained therein in so far as they are the same bound by Law, and to exhibit a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the said Estate and Effects, Rights and Credits, and to render a just and true Account of the same to the said Court whenever required by Law so to do —

Attest my hand and Seal this 10th day of July 1867