"RUBY STANLEY & GRAN-DAD"

Conduct Rites For Cecil McCabe In Town Eaton

St. Nazianz, Wis. — (Special) — Funeral services for Cecil McCabe, 33, who passed away at the General hospital, Madison, after a lengthy illness, were held last Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of his father-in-law, Adolph Wagner, in the town of Eaton, and at 2 o'clock at St. Peter's Evangelical church at Rockland. The Rev. Gerhard Schaefer officiated and burial was made in the church cemetery.

Mr. McCabe was born Jan. 4, 1904, at Helena, Montana, and came to Manitowoc county with his parents when a child, settling down on a farm a few miles northwest of St. Nazianz. In 1926 he was married to Ida Wagner. Survivors are his wife, one daughter and three sons, Ruby Ann, Donald, Philip and Stanley; his father, Patrick McCabe of Dazey, N. D., and one brother, Frank, of Elmhurst, Ill.

Pallbearers were Hugo Rusch, Edwin Dederig, Robert Reichert, Ben Krueger, Reuben Schwalbe and Leo Schwab.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who in any way so kindly assisted us during the long illness and recent death of our beloved husband and father, Cecil P. McCabe. We are especially thankful to Rev. Schaefer, the pallbearers and any others who assisted.

Mrs. Cecil McCabe & Family
