

Adam Gann: Will

March 8th 1812

Blessed be God amen this my last will and testament finding myself in a great in disposition of body but in my right reasons and in my perfect senses first of all committing my body to the earth and my soul to God who gave it I think proper to give my affairs leaving Susan Gannance Nathan Gann my executor of my estate first of all I leave unto my beloved wife Christian Gann all my estate consisting of one negro in the hand of my son David Gann and all my horses all my cattle sheep and hog and household furniture to remain in the hands of my wife Christian Gann during her natural life or widowhood and then to be divided equally amongst my three children Rebecca Gann Thomas Gann Samuel Gann unto all my sons and daughters begotten by my first wife I leave our debt to each of them as witnesses whereof I have hereunto set my hand and
