

County of Monaghan
Ireland

Sarah McCabe Widow of the late Patrick McCabe who formerly resided with her in the Parish of Magheraclon in the County of Monaghan in that part of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, saith, that she had several children by her husband the said Patrick McCabe, born in the said Parish of Magheraclon - that one of their sons was named Patrick, who was the only boy that survived childhood, and is now the only surviving son and heir at Law of her late husband, the said Patrick McCabe. Deponent further saith that the said Patrick McCabe, senior, went to Canada upwards of twenty years since, and deponent has heard and believes that he died there about fourteen years since. - That Patrick McCabe, junior, deponent's son, and his sister Catharina McCabe, remained with her after her husband went to Canada, that her said son Patrick having been informed that his late father owned some Land in Canada he went there about one year since to claim it, being then in the twenty second year of his age.

By Sarah McCabe

Shown before me at Parickstown in the County of Monaghan Ireland the County
day of January 1855

Witness my hand & the Seal of the Court
Naphtali Colvinton
Clerk of the Court
Ireland

Charles Henry
Resident Magistrate
for County of Monaghan