

The original probate files of Hendricks County, some from as early as 1823, are very fragile and are in storage. You are encouraged to use these digital images instead of seeking the originals as they are as complete, and more readable in many cases, than the originals.

JOHN BOYD
ESTATE

1840

HENDRICKS COUNTY, INDIANA

John Boyd's
Estate.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT WE James McClure & John Bohannon Junr.

of the County of Hendricks, and State of Indiana, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana, in the penal sum of four Hundred Dollars, Lawful Money of the United States, for the payment of which, well and truly to be made and done, we bind Ourselves, Our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents: Sealed with Our Seals, and dated this 11th day of March 18*40*

THE CONDITION of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound

will truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts committed to him as

Administrator

of the Estate of John Boyd deceased, according to Law, and will truly and promptly deliver over to his successor to be appointed by the Probate Court of said County, should any such successor ever be appointed, all such estate, Goods, Chattels and assets, and assign to such successor all such RIGHTS AND CREDITS AS SHALL, OF RIGHT, belong to such successor upon reasonable demand made thereof, then the above obligation is to be void and of none effect, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in Law.
